7 DAYS OF BASIC SLOVENE

WEEK 1
A big thanks to all my readers around the globe, for learning Slovene with me!

And a special thanks to my cousin, Jeannie Banh, for creating the illustrations for my blog!
Learning Slovene can be fun and simple, it all depends on your mindset. Trust in yourself and practice as much as you can!
The official language of Slovenia is Slovene.

Worldwide, there is about 2.5 millions speakers, and soon you can become one too!

Slovene is categorized as a Western South Slavic language and has its own distinct characteristics.

In Slovenia, there are around 50 dialects, which are divided into seven regions.
The Slovene alphabet has three extra letters: č, š, ž but four letters less: q, w, x and y.

The letter č sounds like ch - chocolate (čokolada). The letter š sounds like sh - shawl (šal). And the letter ž is pronounced as g, like giraffe (žirafa).

In Slovene, every syllable is important, especially those super scary long words with many š, č.

slaščičarna
"sla-sh-chi-char-na"
(confectionery)

Slovene has six declensions: nominative, genitive, dative, accusative, locative and instrumental. They are often referred by numbers, from 1 to 6.

Declensions are probably one of the most confusing concept of the language. Fortunately, you can easily get by with knowing a few basics. And more importantly, going step-by-steps.

Three genders, three grammatical numbers and six declensions. Depending on the context, one word can easily be written in 18 versions.

(three grammatical numbers, and six declensions)

And because of genders, adjectives have even more versions.
Verb tenses in Slovene are rather simple and straightforward. There are mainly three tenses to learn about: present tense, past tense and future tense.

There are regular and irregular verbs and some exceptions as well. Genders and grammatical numbers will also affect the conjugation.

Slovenians are very polite, there are two kind of speech: formal and informal.

How you address will depend on who your interlocutor is.

Kako si? Kako ste?
(How are you?)
WEEK 1

1 Meeting people
2 Basic numbers
3 Genders

6 Present tense
7 Irregular verbs
MEETING PEOPLE

When meeting people, you need to know how to greet them properly and how to introduce yourself and start some generic conversation.

Greetings

Depending on the time of the day, different greetings are being used.

- In the morning, before 9am, you say dobro jutro (good morning).
- After 9am and during the day, you greet živjo or zdravo (informal hello). Or dober dan or pozdravljeni (formal good day).
- In the evening, from 6pm to 9pm, you say dober večer (good evening).
- When it is time to go sleep, you wish lahko noč (good night).

Other useful greetings and wishes.

najlepša hvala - thank you very much dobrodošli - welcome na zdravje - cheers (drink), bless you (sneeze) dober tek - enjoy your meal lep dan želim - I wish you a good day lepo se imej - have a nice day vse najboljše (za rojstni dan) - all the best, happy birthday čestitam - congratulations srečno pot - safe travel bodi bolje - get well soon iskreno sožalje - sincere condolences
Introduce yourself

Slovene is a very polite language and it has two forms of speech: formal and informal. Introducing yourself properly is a nice way to meet new friends and a great way to start a conversation.

What is your name?
- Kako vam je ime? (formal)
- Kako ti je ime? (informal)
You can reply with
- Jaz sem Anna (I am Anna).
- Ime mi je Anna (My name is Anna).

Once your interlocutor has introduce himself/herself, it is very good to reply with me veseli (nice to meet you).

Where are you from?
- Od kod ste? (formal)
- Od kod si? (informal)
You can reply with
- Jaz sem iz Kanade (I am from Canada).
- Prihajam iz Montreala (I come from Montreal)

If the place ends with -a, it changes into -e.
If it doesn't end with an -a, then you add one.

- Avstrija (Austria) becomes iz Avstrije.
- Francija (France) becomes iz Francije.
- Grčija (Greece) becomes iz Grčije.
- Hrvaška (Croatia) becomes s Hrvaške.
- Kitajska (China) becomes s Kitajske.
- Slovenija (Slovenia) becomes iz Slovenije.

- Benetke (Venice) becomes iz Benetka.
- Dunaj (Vienna) becomes z Dunaja.
- Pariz (Paris) becomes iz Pariza.
- Rim (Rome) becomes iz Rima.
How old are you?
- Koliko ste stari? (formal)
- Koliko si star(a)? (informal)
You can reply with
- Star(a) sem 30 let (I am 30 years old).

In Slovene, genders matters.
If the subject is masculine, it stays as it is.
If the subject is feminine, an -a is added at the end.

What is your education, profession?
- Kaj ste po poklicu? (formal)
- Kaj si po poklicu? (informal)
You can reply with
- Po poklicu sem medicinska sestra (My profession is a nurse).
- Delam kot učiteljica (I work as a teacher).

Keep in mind that profession has masculine and feminine form.

- direktor, direktorica - manager
- farmacevt, farmacevtka - pharmacist
- frizer, frizerka - hairdresser
- gasilec, gasilca - firefighter
- igralec, igralka - actor, actress, performer
- inženir, inženirka - engineer
- kuhar, kuharica - cook, chef
- natakar, natakarica - waiter, waitress
- novinar, novinarka - journalist
- policist, policistka - policeman
- poslovnež - businessman
- poštar - postman
- pravnik, pravnica - lawyer
- prevajalec, prevajalka - translator
- prodajalec, prodajalka - salesman
- ravnatelj, ravnateljica - director of a school
- raziskovalec, razskovalka - researcher, explorer
- tajnik, tajnica - secretary
- zdravnik, zdravnica - doctor
Dober dan.

There are a lot more information that you can share about yourself.

- Kako se pišete? (What is your surname?)
- Kdaj ste rojeni? (When were you born?)
- Kdaj imate rojstni dan? (When do you have birthday?)
- Kje živite/stanujete? (Where do you live?)
- Kje delate? (Where do you work?)
- Koliko časa ste bili v Sloveniji? (How long have you been in Slovenia?)
- Kaj delate v prostem času? (What do you do in your free time?)
- Katere jezike govorite? (Which languages do you speak?)

Here is a little exercise that you can do for yourself.

Dober dan.
Jaz sem ______________.
Pišem se ______________.
Prihajam iz ______________.
Živim v ______________.
Star(a) sem ______________ let.
Rojen(a) sem ______________.
Po poklicu sem kot ______________.
Delam v ______________.
V Sloveniji, sem bila ______________ let/mesec.
V prostem času, rad(a)______________.
Gоворим ______________.
“On the road of learning, don't try to be perfect.

Because speaking with mistakes is better than not speaking at all.”
BASIC NUMBERS

Slovene numbers - številke, are very simple. Learning them will able you to express age, time, prices, amount and much more.

Counting

The most fundamental numbers that you need to remember is 1 to 10.

- ena - 1
- štiri - 4
- sedem - 7
- dva - 2
- pet - 5
- osem - 8
- tri - 3
- šest - 6
- devet - 9
- deset - 10

The numbers 11 to 19 follow a simple formula: (1 to 9) + najst.

- enajst - 11
- štirinajst - 14
- sedemnajst - 17
- dvanajst - 12
- petnajst - 15
- osemnajst - 18
- trinajst - 13
- šestnajst - 16
- devetnajst - 19

The number after 20 are also very easy to remember.

- enaindvajset - 21 "one and twenty"
- dvaindvajset - 22 "two and twenty"
- trivindvajset - 23 "three and twenty"
- štirivindvajset - 24 "four and twenty"
- petindvajset - 25 "five and twenty"

As you can see, numbers in Slovene are reversed. In English, 28 would be twenty-eight, but in Slovene, it is osemindvajset, which translates into "eight and twenty".

The numbers by deset (10) are quite straightforward.

- trideset - 30 "three ten"
- štirideset - 40 "four ten"
- petdeset - 50 "five ten"
The numbers by sto (100) are in one word while the numbers by tisoč (1000) are in two.

- dvesto - 200 "two hundred"
- tristo - 300 "three hundred"
- osemsto - 800 "eight hundred"
- dva tisoč - 2000 "two thousand"
- pet tisoč - 5000 "five thousand"
- šest tisoč - 6000 "six thousand"

Now the fun part is to practice combination of numbers!

- 99 is written devetinddevetset
- 168 is written sto oseminšestdeset
- 1978 is written tisoč devetsto oseminsedemdeset

Here are some numbers for you to practice.

| 28 | 37 | 168 | 234 | 729 | 999 | 2021 | 3465 | 6580 | 8001 |

Simple use

Numbers are used in many contexts ad on a daily basis, for age, prices, amounts, time and so much more. Here are some questions that you can get familiar with.

- Koliko ste stari? Star(a) sem trideset let. (How old are you? I am 30 years old.)
- Koliko je ura? Ura je tri. (What is the time? Time is 3 o’clock.)
- Koliko stane? Stane pet evrov. (How much does it cost? It costs 5 euro.)
- Koliko otrok imate? Imam dva otroka. (How many kids do you have? I have 2 kids.)
GENDERS

Slovene has three genders – moški. Knowing how to distinguish between masculine, feminine and neuter nouns is crucial for declension.

MASCULINE

In general, Slovene masculine – moški (m), nouns end with a consonant, but there are some exceptions as well.

Few examples of masculine nouns that end with a consonant.
- dedek (grandfather), denar (money), maček (cat), pes (dog), računalnik (computer), stol (chair), telefon (phone)

International nouns are also masculine, even if they don’t end with a consonant. And you probably can recognize some of them.
- avto (car), radio (radio), taksi (taxi), hobi (hobby), metro (subway), kanu (canoe) nivo (level), kino (cinema), bife (bar), kuli (pen)

Some individual names that end with -a, -e, -o but are clearly masculine. You might even be acquainted with some of them.
- Tone, Jože, Miha, Žiga, Marko, Luka
- oče (father)

FEMININE

Slovene feminine – zenški (ž), nouns, usually end with -a, but there are also some exceptions.

Few examples of feminine nouns that end with -a.
- babica (grandmother), doma (home), kava (coffee), hiša (house), luna (moon), miza (table), sestra (sister), torbica (purse)
Nouns that end with -ev or -ost are feminine.
- breskev (peach), cerkev (church), lestev (ladder), ponev (pan), odločitev (decision), prireditev (arrangement), rešitev (solution)
- lastnost (ownwership), starost (age), tajnost (secret, mystery)

Some nouns that end with -en, -em or -el are feminine. Be careful not to confuse them with masculine adjectives.
- bolezen (disease), ljubezen (love), pesem (song), misel (thought), zamisel (idea)

And some "random" shorter nouns that are feminine.
- klet (cellar), luč (light), moč (strength), noč (night), pot (path), smer (direction), sol (salt), vas (village)

Neuter

Slovene neuter - srednji (s), nouns can be recognized by endings with -e or -o, but be careful that it's not a masculine exception!

Few examples of neuter nouns that end with -e or -o.
- drevo (tree), jajce (egg), kolo (bike), letalo (airplane), mleko (milk), morje (sea), okno (window), sonce (sun), srce (heart)

As a good exercise to expand your vocabulary, write down 10 nouns for each gender. Here are a few examples.
VERB – TO BE

One of the most important verb to memorize in any language, is the verb to be – biti. It is an irregular verb and it has its own negative form.

Personal pronouns

First, let's get familiar with personal pronoun for the subject. Slovene has three genders, three grammatical numbers and six declensions.

Note - (E) ednina (singular), (D) dvojina (dual), (M) množina (plural) and (m) moški (masculine), (ž) ženski (feminine), (s) srednji (neuter).

When the pronoun is the subject, it is in the first declension.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th>(m)</th>
<th>(ž)</th>
<th>(s)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>(E)</td>
<td>on</td>
<td>ona</td>
<td>ono</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>jaz</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>ti</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(D)</td>
<td>midva</td>
<td></td>
<td>medve</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>vidve</td>
<td>vedve</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>onadva</td>
<td>onidva</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(M)</td>
<td>mi</td>
<td>me</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>vi</td>
<td>ve</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>oni</td>
<td>one</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

If the one subject is masculine, then the personal pronoun used if masculine.

- Jan in Marko becomes onadva.
- Marko in Anna becomes onadva.
- Anna in Melita becomes onidve.
To be or not to be

The verb biti (to be) is very simple. It comes in its own positive and negative form, that you will have to memorize. This is the Present tense.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>subject</th>
<th>BITI</th>
<th>NE BITI</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Jaz</td>
<td>sem</td>
<td>nisem</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Ti</td>
<td>si</td>
<td>nisi</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>On, Ona</td>
<td>je</td>
<td>ni</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Midva</td>
<td>sva</td>
<td>nisva</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Vidva</td>
<td>sta</td>
<td>nista</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Onidva</td>
<td>sta</td>
<td>nista</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mi</td>
<td>smo</td>
<td>nismo</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Vi</td>
<td>ste</td>
<td>niste</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Oni</td>
<td>so</td>
<td>niso</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The negative form is very simple, in most case, you just add ni infront. The only exception is with the singular third person (on, ona, ono), where the negative form is ni and not "ni je".

Simple use

The verb biti can be used in many ways. Here are a few simple examples.

BITI + [NOUN]
- Jaz sem Anna. (I am Anna.)
- Tina in Miha nista prijatelja. (Tina and Miha are not friends.)

BITI + [ADJECTIVE]
- Marko je lačen. (Marko is hungry.)
- Otroci niso utrujeni. (The kids are not tired.)
1st DECLENSION

The first sklon - imenovalnik or nominative, is the original form of the nouns, the one that can be found in the dictionary.

Table of endings

In Slovene, it is important to remember that everything has to coordinate: the subject, the verb, the adjective and the nouns.

The first declension is used to answer two questions.
- Kdo (Who), as in kdo je? (who is it?)
- Kaj (What), as in kaj je? (what is it?)

Note - (E) ednina (singular), (D) dvojina (dual), (M) množina (plural) and (m) moški (masculine), (ž) ženski (feminine), (s) srednji (neuter).

Here is a table of endings with examples.
- (m) star stol (old chair)
- (ž) lepa torba (pretty bag)
- (s) novo kolo (new bike), vroče morje (hot sea)

With the coordinating subjects and conjugations.
- (E) to je (this is)
- (D) to sta (these two are)
- (M) to so (these are)

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>1</th>
<th>(m) star stol</th>
<th>(ž) lepa torba</th>
<th>(s) novo kolo</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>

</tr>
<tr>
<td>(D) To sta</td>
<td>stara stola</td>
<td>lepi torbi</td>
<td>novi koli</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(M) To so</td>
<td>stari stoli</td>
<td>lepe torbe</td>
<td>nova kola</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Here is a simplified table of endings for the first declension.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>1</th>
<th>(m)</th>
<th>(ž)</th>
<th>(s)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>(E)</td>
<td>-Ø -Ø</td>
<td>-A -A</td>
<td>-O/E* -O/E</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(D)</td>
<td>-A -A</td>
<td>-I -I</td>
<td>-I -I</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(M)</td>
<td>-I -I</td>
<td>-E -E</td>
<td>-A -A</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Reminder - *If the letter before is part of the famous bracket (c, č, š, ž, j) then o becomes e.

As you can see, there are some similar endings:
- marked in blue - the dual masculine is the same as the neuter plural.
- marked in orange - the plural masculine is the same as dual plural.

When to use

Each Slovene declension is used under specific indicators. Here are the indicators for the first declension, marked as 1 in purple.

The noun is the subject.
- Stol 1 je star. (The chair is old.)
- Otroci 1 niso zunaj. (The kids are not outside.)

The noun is used with a specific phrase.
- Všeč mi je torta 1. (I like cake.)
- Boli mi je trebuh 1. (My abdomen hurts me.)
- Zanima me risanje 1. (Drawing interests me.)

The noun is used with a specific verb.
- biti (affirmative & negative): Jaz sem Anna 1, nisem Annie 1 (I am Anna, I am not Annie).
- postati (to become), ostati (to remain), imenovati (to name)
To remember the endings, repeat them with words that you use everyday.

For me, it is piškot, kava and mleko.
PRESENT TENSE

There are three tenses in Slovene and the first one to learn is the present tense - sedanjik. It is divided into regular and irregular verbs.

Table of endings

The Present tense of Slovene verbs is in close relationship with the endings of its infinitive form.

Here's a table of endings with examples.

- govoriti (to talk) - a regular verb that ends with -ti.
- reči (to say) - a regular verb that ends with -či.
- jesti (to eat) - a irregular verb that ends with -ti and a little twist.

These three verbs belong to three different categories of verbs, but look at their endings, marked in red.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>subject</th>
<th>GOVORITI</th>
<th>REČI</th>
<th>JESTI</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Jaz</td>
<td>govoričm</td>
<td>rečem</td>

</tr>
<tr>
<td>Ti</td>
<td>govoriš</td>
<td>rečeš</td>
<td>ješ</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>On, Ona</td>
<td>govorič</td>
<td>rečeč</td>
<td>ječ</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Midva</td>
<td>govorivä</td>
<td>rečeva</td>
<td>jevä</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Vidva</td>
<td>govorita</td>

<td>govorite</td>
<td>rečete</td>
<td>ješte</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Oni</td>
<td>govorijo</td>
<td>rečejo</td>
<td>jejo / jedo</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
The easiest way to learn the present tense is to memorize the jaz form and simply change the ending as follow.

- Jaz -M
- Ti - Š
- On, Ona - Ø
- Midva - VA
- Vidva - TA
- Onidva - TA
- Mi - MO
- Vi - TE
- Oni - JO / DO

Pattern of verbs

Regular and irregular verbs both follow some kind of patterns. Here are three simple ones.

Govoriti (to talk) ends with -ti. To conjugate, you simply replace -ti with the corresponding ending. For example,

- kuhati (to cook) - jaz kuham (I cook)
- naročiti (to order) - jaz naročim (order)
- učiti se (to learn) - jaz se učim (I learn)

Reči (to say) ends with -či. To conjugate, you change -či with -če and add the corresponding ending. For example,

- peči (to bake) - jaz pečem (I bake)
- teči (to run) - jaz tečem (I run)
- vleči (to pull) - jaz vlečem (I pull)

Jesti (to eat) is irregular and falls into a category with three other verbs. To conjugate, all pronouns is the same, with three exceptions. Midva, vidva and vi, an s is added before the ending. Also, these particular verbs have two possible endings with oni.

- iti (to go) - jaz grem (I go), vi greste, oni grejo/gredo
- vedeti (to know) - jaz vem (I know)
- dati (to give) - jaz dam (I know)

And the negative form cannot be any easier: just add ne infront.

- ne govorim (I don't talk), ne rečem (I don't say), ne jem (I don't eat),
Verb endings

Luckily, irregular verbs can be put into groups and sub groups. Remember to always use the jaz form as a guide.

VERBS ENDING WITH -OVATI OR -EVATI

Verbs that end with -ovati, the -ova always becomes -uje.
- imenovati (to name) - jaz imenujem (I name)
- kupovati (to buy) - jaz kupujem (I buy)
- potrebovati (to need) - jaz potrebujem (I need)
- potovati (to travel) - jaz potujem (I travel)
- napredovati (to advance) - jaz napredujem (I advance)
- napovedovati (to predict) - jaz napovedujem (I predict)
- stanovati (I live) - jaz stanujem (I live)
- svetovati (to advise) - jaz svetujem (I advise)

About 95% of verbs that end with -evati, the -eva also becomes -uje.
- končevati (to finish) - jaz končujem (I finish)
- ločevati (to separate) - jaz ločujem (I separate)
- srečevati (to meet) - jaz srečujem (I meet)
- vključevati (to include) - jaz vključujem (I include)

For remaining 5%, the -eva remains the same.
- domnevati (to suppose) - jaz domnevam (I suppose)
- preštevati (to count) - jaz preštevam (I count)
- odštevati (to deduct) - jaz odštevam (I deduct)
VERBS ENDING WITH -ČI

Most verbs that end with -či, the -či becomes -če.
- obleči se (to get dressed) - jaz oblečem (I get dressed)
- opeči (to burn) - jaz opečem (I burn)
- tolči (to beat) - jaz tolčem (I beat)

Some verbs that end with -či, the -či becomes -že (or with a twist*).
- doseči (to reach) - jaz dosežem (I reach)
- leči (to lay down) - jaz ležem (I lay down)
- preseči (to exceed) - jaz presežem (I exceed)
- vreči (to throw) - jaz vržem (I throw)*
- zaseči (to confiscate) - jaz zasežem (I confiscate)

VERBS ENDING WITH -SATI

Some verbs that end with -sati, the -sa becomes -še.
- pisati (to write) - jaz pišem (I write)
- plesati (to dance) - jaz plešem (I dance)
- risati (to draw) - jaz rišem (I draw)

Irregular verbs have many more groups and sub-groups, but it might get confusing. Here are some examples of irregular verbs that are used everyday.
- brati (to read) - jaz berem (I read)
- hoteti (to want) - jaz hočem (I want)
- imeti (to have) - jaz imam (I have)
- iskati (to look for) - jaz isčem (I look for)
- klicati (to call) - jaz kličem (I call)
- metati (to throw) - jaz mečem (I throw)
- moči (to be able to) - jaz morem (I am able to)
- najti (to find) - jaz najdem (I find)
- pasti (to fall) - jaz padem (I fall)
- piti (to drink) - jaz pijem (I drink)
- spati (to sleep) - jaz spim (I sleep)
- videti (to see) - jaz vidim (I see)
- želeti (to wish) - jaz želim (I wish)
- živeti (to live) - jaz živim (I live)

As I like to repeat to myself:

Vaja dela mojstra.

Practice makes perfect, so don't be afraid to do it!
